

Apologies for the long delay getting these posted. With Canada Games sending me away for a week, and a timing error at the U11 event, it took a little time to get things straightened out:

During the U11 Singles at Orenda, I stood up to re-secure our anchor at the Finish line, and somehow reset the watch I was timing with. This happened just after the 86th boat had crossed the finishline. To get back on track, we let the boats on the course finish, and used the start watch to get their times and then rest both watches to get back in synch and start again.

Lane Numbers with 'b' after them are from the second timing round, the 'b' added so we could keep it straight.

The first 86 finish times were lost except for about 20 that I had written down as I always do just to make sure things match up in the results process. Those, in addition to the fact that a fairly large number of paddlers from the missing 86 also completed efforts in the second (b) round, allowed us to rebuild much of the missing results. While not entirely accurate, the order of finish IS correct, and I suspect no more than 10 seconds differential from the actual time.

Sorry for all this, and thanks for your understanding;

Jeff Houser
Regional Coach, ADCKC
